Match Agreement

Completing a Match Application and being accepted does not guarantee that you will be matched.

The Relationship Intuitive has the right to deny an application. Most often, it is due to a reading coming through that the applicant is not ready for a Divine committed relationship.

You will be contacted via email that your application has been accepted or denied.

There is no designated timeframe for being matched. The Relationship Intuitive will only match when two energies are aligned and coherent with one another. This may take time, as it is dependent on the pool of candidates.

You will be contacted when a Match has been selected for you prior to the introduction; for your acceptance of the Match.

You have full authority to decline a Match.

Match Introductions will then take place after both parties have accepted the Match, the introduction will occur via Zoom.

The Masculine Energy is asked to take the lead after introduction. This includes initiating, planning and scheduling the first date.

If you no longer would like to be Matched, for whatever reason, please contact The Relationship Intuitive for your application to be withdrawn.

After the Match Introduction has taken place, The Relationship Intuitive is not responsible or liable of the unfoldment of the connection. This is now the responsibility of the two individuals matched.

The Relationship Intuitive is not held liable from any claims, demands, injuries, actions, causes of action nor suits of any kind or nature whatsoever, which now have or may hereafter have, arise out of relating to any and all services.

For application submission, this Form, Match Questionnaire and 2 photos need to be emailed to TheRelationshipIntuitive@gmail.com

Application and being placed to be Matched is free, upon acceptance of a Match, prior to introduction, fee is $150.
